

MARK 1:1

THE GREATEST PERSON IN HISTORY

He was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant.

He grew up in another village, where He worked in a carpenter shop until He was 30.

Then, for three years, He was an itinerant preacher.

He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never had a family or owned a home. He didn't go to college. He never lived in a big city.

He never travelled more than 200 miles from the place where He was born.

He did none of the things that usually accompany greatness.

He had no credentials but Himself.

He was only 33 when the tide of public opinion turned against Him.

His friends ran away. One of them denied Him. Another betrayed Him.

He was turned over to His enemies and went through the mockery of a trial.

He was nailed to a cross between two thieves.

While He was dying, His executioners gambled for His clothes, the only property He had on earth.

When He was dead, He was laid in a borrowed grave, through the pity of a friend.

Twenty centuries have come and gone,
and today He is still the central figure of the human race.

All the armies that ever marched,
All the navies that ever sailed,
All the parliaments that ever sat,
All the kings that ever reigned,
put together, have not affected the life of mankind on this earth as much as that one, solitary life.

They are walking on a path made of dry, reddish-brown earth and small, light-colored rocks. The lighting is bright, casting a distinct shadow of the person's feet onto the ground.
